Changes and additions to University Regulations affecting this Contract become effective and binding on the first date of posting or official announcement.
- c. Any attempted assignment or subletting of this Contract by you is null and void.
- d. You agree that if you violate any of the terms or conditions of this Contract, have a poor payment history, or if the University determines you have violated the University Regulations and/or the terms and conditions of roommate contracts agreed upon by you and your roommate(s), or if you are disruptive to the use and enjoyment of University Housing by other students, the University may refuse to offer you a University Housing contract in the future.
- e. You agree that if the University finds you to be in violation of this Contract or of any of the University Regulations, have a poor payment history, or if you are disruptive to the use and enjoyment of University Housing by other students: (1) you may be subject to disciplinary action (including but not limited to dismissal from the University); (2) you may be required to change University Housing residence halls; and/or (3) your license to use University Housing may be revoked and this Contract canceled and you may be required to withdraw from University Housing. If the University requires you to withdraw from University Housing, this Contract will be automatically canceled and you will pay all charges accrued under this Contract until you check out pursuant to Section VII, plus the Liquidated Damages Charge (defined below).
- f. You agree to keep your contact and student information updated by use of official University websites.

II. Conditions of Contract

- a. This Contract is offered on the condition you are admitted to the University. This Contract does not guarantee you have been admitted to the University. Only the Office of Admissions can grant admission to the University.
- b. You must be eligible to register as a full-time student actively pursuing a degree at the University, or engaged in a University-sponsored academic activity, to be eligible to live in University Housing. Should your status change from full time to part time, you may be subject to removal or withdrawal from housing. However, shifting to part-time status does not automatically make you exempt from living on-campus. All completed applications are ranked in the order of when they are received in order to assess priority for room assignments.
- c. Registered Sex Offenders are prohibited from working or living in University Housing and University Housing will not be provided to, or required of, any Registered Sex Offenders. Registered Sex Offenders are prohibited from being within the living areas of University Housing, including the University's Residence Hall and Apartments.

- e. This contract is offered for the use of a furnished room within University Housing. This contract does not guarantee assignment to a specific housing facility or room type. University Housing reserves the right to utilize housing facilities and adjust housing assignments as necessary to achieve University objectives.

III. Payments and Charges

- a. University Housing charges will be included on your University fee statement. You will be assessed for the entire semester charge prior to the start of the semester. Payment is due according to University tuition and fee payment schedules. If payment is not made by the due date, a late payment charge ("Late Payment Charge") will be assessed according to University schedules. If a Late Payment Charge has been assessed, a hold may be placed on your University record for outstanding charges and you will be unable to register, graduate with your diploma, and/or receive an official transcript or refunds until your University Account is brought current and all payments and fees due are paid.
- b. Failure to receive a statement or notice does not relieve you of the responsibility to pay on or before the due dates.
- c. If you fail to pay on a timely basis, you may have your license to use University Housing revoked, and you may be denied a future University Housing Contract.
- d. If you withdraw from or are dismissed from the University or University Housing for any reason during the contract period, including enforced scholastic withdrawal, you will pay all charges accrued under this Contract until you check out pursuant to Section VII, plus $900.00 in liquidated damages, to cover costs the University will incur and/or losses the University may suffer as a result of the withdrawal or dismissal ("Liquidated Damages Charge").
- e. The $100 application fee which accompanied your University Housing application is non-refundable.
 - A Student with a financial hardship waiver may defer payment of the fee until the beginning of the initial term associated with this Contract.
 - If the fee is deferred, University Housing will post a $100 charge to Student's account to correspond with the start of the term and the potential dispersal of available financial aid.
 - Student is responsible for paying the deferred non-refundable application fee even if Student fails to complete the application process, fails to enroll or withdraws from University, or is approved for a contract release prior to the start of the term and the dispersal of available financial aid.

However, University may cancel this Contract if you are not registered and fail to check into your unit during your assigned or scheduled move in day. Once the Contract Period begins, you may request to cancel this Contract for any of the following reasons as indicated in writing to the Office of Housing and Residence Life (studenthousing@utsa.edu) by completing the cancellation request form which is located on your Housing Portal:

If part or all of university housing is closed due to an emergency or natural disaster, the University may adjust or terminate this contract without prior notice. The University may extend this contract an equivalent amount of time as the closure to address the loss of use of university housing and to provide for future use. In no event shall the University be obligated to provide alternate housing to the Student or to rebuild or replace any affected premises. Please note that if the Student initially had a scholarship that covered housing fees, the amount will be credited back to the original form of scholarship.

V. Room Assignment

- a. The University assigns roommates without regard to race, color, sexual orientation, religion, or national origin. All units are single-gender assigned unless designated as a Gender Inclusive Housing (GIH) option. Summer housing within Guadalupe Hall will be assigned same gender units with the exception of GIH spaces. However, bathroom pods may not be limited to single-gender use depending upon availability. Students who feel they have a physical or emotional condition that may impact their room assignment should notify University Housing. University Housing may be able to address concerns through standard business practices.
